Peace Corps Grant Guru

2018-2019

Are you interested in becoming a leader for RTY? Helping other ambassadors in your country fund their RTY Programs? Are you passionate about sharing yoga and mindfulness with youth in your country? RTY is looking for Grant Gurus to research and apply for grants for programs in your country, so that we can reach even more young adults.

Basic responsibilities of an RTY Grant Guru:

- Keep in contact with the RTY Champion in your region, and assist them in grant/funding related projects.
- Research and apply to region-specific grants to help support fellow Ambassadors and your own RTY programs, and to potentially host an in-person RTY training. Ambassadors have previously applied to grants (like PEPFAR, Let Girls Learn, and other PCPP grants) to fund RTY Ambassador trainings. In person training typically cost between $1,500-$5,000 depending on the cost to get to said country.
- We ask you to spark interest in other PCVs in your country by speaking at conferences or writing about RTY in local Peace Corps publications.
- We may ask you to help us facilitate subsequent RTY Trainings in country, and to speak about and share your experience as an RTY Ambassador to fellow PCVs and teaching the RTY Curriculum.

Let us know if you have any questions at rootstribeyoga@gmail.com, and remember: we are with you 100% of the way!
